Dear Taxpayer:

A new law passed during the 2007 Legislative Session, Senate Bill 377, lowered the threshold for mandatory electronic payments for certain taxes from $100,000 to $10,000. Taxpayers making payments that exceed this threshold are required by law to electronically transmit payments to the Comptroller's office.

During the previous fiscal year, our records indicate your company made payments exceeding the threshold for

You are required to electronically transmit all payments to the Comptroller that are due on or after May 1, 2008 for this tax and you must still file a return for this tax.

TEXNET, the State of Texas Financial Network, was designed to receive electronic payments from taxpayers. You can electronically transmit payments through TEXNET via the Internet or telephone if you do not have Web access. The enclosure contains more information on this system. If you are not already enrolled, please access our Window on State Government Web site at www.window.state.tx.us and click on TEXNET.
